BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Thomas Griffith was born on March 23, 1834 in Honey Brook, Pennsylvania. He attended Dickinson College and was a member of the class of 1858. During his career as a student at Dickinson College, Griffith became a member of the Belles Lettres Society. Griffith was also a student at Dickinson College during the time when the rebel troops attempted to occupy the campus and Carlisle during the Civil War. He wrote a couple of letters dealing with this topic to his family.

During his life after college, Griffith became a member of the Philadelphia Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Griffith was a member of this conference from 1859-1898. While working in this conference, Griffith served in many churches that were located in Pennsylvania. Griffith served at churches in Chestnut Hill, Churchtown, Cornwall, Carlisle, Harrisburg, Philadelphia, Lebanon, Mauch Chunk, and Media. While working in the church, Griffith published many tracts and review articles. He also received an honorary Doctor of Divinity from Dickinson College in 1891. Griffith died on April 8, 1898 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

COLLECTION DESCRIPTION

The Thomas Griffith collection is housed in one document box and one Diploma Collection folder. These papers have been combined from the donations of Griffith's daughter and Sara Cochran Coppes, a cousin of Griffith's daughter-in-law. It has been subdivided into five series: Correspondence, Speeches, Church Papers, Miscellaneous, and Oversized. The Correspondence series contains a small number of letters both to and from Thomas Griffith. It contains correspondence with his brother and sister, including an 1863 letter describing events surrounding the Confederate occupation of Carlisle, Pennsylvania. It also contains a note from Thomas Murphy announcing Griffith's selection for an honorary degree from Dickinson College. These items are arranged in chronological order. The Speeches series contains several of Griffith's speeches arranged in alphabetical order by title. The Church Papers series includes various documents from Griffith's career in the church. Included are such things as sermons and preaching certificates, as well as some notes. The fourth series, Miscellaneous, includes some of Griffith's school papers, a scrapbook, and a copy of the Griffith Family Genealogical chart. These items are arranged in chronological order. Finally, the Oversized series includes Griffith's three Dickinson College diplomas. These diplomas for his B.A., M.A., and honorary D.D. degree are housed separately from the rest of the collection in the college's general Diploma Collection.
